You need to update your movies to. Exemption is a question to think about if you are considering applying for a credit card. The exception is a credit card that allows cash back. You do not pay taxes on the cash back. There may be an annual fee but this is deductible for tax purposes. Some cash back cards also have a set of rules regarding when you qualify for cash back. These terms are typically outlined on the back of your card. Looking for a list of cards with no annual fee? This card has no annual fee, but it does have a $5 fee for cash back if you make a purchase in the first three months of being a card member. That said, a good deal on your favorite brand of clothing or your favorite restaurant might make this a good card. Many people like this card because it offers a little more flexibility than a more traditional credit card. You can transfer funds to the card and you can even roll over to next year. Plus, many people like the fact that this card allows for cash back on restaurants. Other cards are available with the same flexibility. The Capital One® Platinum Card is an excellent option for those with good credit. This card gives you a good deal of flexibility. It has no annual fee and in my opinion, it is the easiest card to apply for. You have a small application fee for the card and you get 25,000 bonus points for signing up. The best part of this card is that your money is less likely to go to a creditor with poor interest rates. In addition to the flexibility and the low interest rates, this card has a great cash back program. You could get up to 4% cash back on gas. 4% is about average for credit cards. Other cards will have lower or higher cash back amounts. Cash back on this card is not limited to purchases. That means that you can get cash back on travel, department store purchases, and even online purchases. Many cards
